Vol. 29 No. 6

FROM OUR PASTOR

What a Month!!

I have to tell you: the month of May 2007 had to be one of the busiest, most productive months in our church's history. The opening days saw your staff moving their offices to the portable trailers near the gym—they're really, pretty nice—while the asbestos abatement process was carried out on buildings which will soon be razed. Meanwhile, in your sanctuary, the newly formed Northwest Georgia Presbytery held its stated meeting on May 1st. Later that week, a crucial permit (Land Disturbance Permit) was cleared by Cobb County, while much preparatory work was being done for the May 6th First Sunday of May and Groundbreaking Celebration.

God blessed us with a glorious and encouraging Groundbreaking Service. If you missed it, pictures should soon be available on our website. And the lunch that followed was a rich time of fellowship and renewal. At the afternoon service, the Midway Cemetary Association announced that it was over 60% toward it's goal of having a perpetual, self-sufficient fund to care for our cemetary's needs.

Then, during the second week of May, a number of vital meetings occurred between our committees to prepare for road expansions, necessary site preparations, coordination with county agencies, and our own committees and staff.

Next, the big equipment arrived. Grounds are being cleared for the next steps forward. It is sad to see all those trees felled and to lose buildings that have rich memories for many. Yet, we are called to sacrifice for future generations.

Toward the end of the month, more digging, demolition, and re-arranging of things occurred. We now have orange fences up to protect our young. Midway Covenant Christian School has completed its tenth school year, culminating with a make-shift but very successful Field Day in late May. Several older buildings are slated to be razed after Memorial Day.

I want to express again my thanks to school administrators, staff, and all who have been flexible during this process. Your church has not and is not shrinking back from the Lord's summons to press onward to the high calling of Christ.

Our contractor, Randall Redding, now has his team on the ground, and the building process promises to be exciting and challenging. I am impressed with how much has been accomplished already in a few weeks.

While all this is ongoing, you are continuing to be a very faithful church in your giving, prayer, worship, and fellowship. We had one of our largest Evening Worship services of the year on May 20th as we recognized the highest number of high school graduates (and a fine crop at that) yet at our Youth Sunday service. And the Spring Recital just prior to that worship service was very well attended and provided an excellent offering by young choristers who have worked so diligently. Many children completed a scripture or catechism memorization program, and we'll recognize them June 3.

It's been an incredible month of May, and I praise the Lord for all that he is doing in our church and in you. It is a great and rare blessing to be able to praise God amidst so much flying dust. It reminds me of how the apostle Paul taught that, while our outward facades may waste away, inwardly we are being renewed day by day.

God is at work in our church, and we thank him for the progress, challenges, and working of his Holy Spirit.

Do, please, keep praying for your church, keep introducing your friends to our church, and support us in every way possible as we build for the future. Thank you for your sacrifice and good spirit. May God bless each of you with a restful and meaningful summer.

Creation Ministries International

Midway is pleased to host an outstanding speaker and expert on biblical origins at our evening service, June 10th @ 6:00 PM. Dr. Jonathan Sarfati, an author, a scientist, and speaker for Creation Ministries International will visit Midway while he's in the USA. Do, please, plan to hear this speaker and invite some friends to learn. For more, see Mac Worley's description below.

General Assembly and Report

I am happy that Midway always likes to be informed about what is happening in Presbytery and General Assembly. This year the PCA General Assembly will meet in Memphis, TN, June 12-15. I and your other representatives will give our report on this important meeting to the Session and any interested members @ 7:30 PM on Monday night, June 18th. Do join us for the update if you can.

CUTTING FLOOR

My friend Ligon Duncan, the pastor of First Presbyterian, Jackson, MS, had this colorful application in his sermon on Ephesians 5:8-14. While we may chuckle, it also serves a good warning:

“That is one reason why in our approach to evangelism and discipleship at First Presbyterian Church we try to be dramatically God-centered. We want to send a message to everyone who comes in the doors that it's all about God – and that is radically counter-cultural, because our culture thinks ‘It's all about me.’

Some of you may have seen the hilarious video that's circulating on the internet now, called Me Church. If you haven't seen it, go to Google and type in “Me Church” and watch the video uct&id=413]. It will leave you on the floor laughing. But it's a spoof on evangelical churches that have followed the ways of secular marketing and tried to appeal to the basis of what people want, and what they think the church ought to be like and ought to be doing, in order to get them to church, and it's called Me Church.

[<http://www.sermonspice.com/cart/?p=prod>

The video opens with a woman saying, “You know, my life is hard. I work hard, I've got a busy week, and when I get to Sunday, it's hard for me to be on time. And I want to go to a church that starts when I get there.” And then the narrator comes on and says, “OK, you join our church, and when you arrive, we begin!”

And then it zeroes in on a family holding a young baby, and they say, “You know, this little guy, he plays by his own rules. We want to go to a church where if he starts crying in the middle of the service, nobody looks at us and judges us, but they accept us.” And he says, “That's all right. If you come and join our church, your little guy starts crying, then everybody else around you, they'll just have to leave! And you can stay there.”

And then another person comes on, and he says, “You know, my wife Sherry and I, we don't personally give a lot to the church, but we like to know who does.” And then the narrator comes on and says, “All right, you join our church and you'll know everybody who gives, in detail!”

And then a little guy comes on to the screen. He's on his bicycle. He says, “If I join the church, I want a pony!” And the narrator says, “Look in your back yard!”

And then a lady comes on, and she's reading a book, and she says, “You know, I want to know if I join the church, can I get a buff and a wax? During the worship service?” And the narrator comes on and says, “Not only a buff and a wax, but we'll do an oil change and a tune-up, free!”

And then another guy comes on, and he says, “If I join the church, I want tickets to the Big Game. I want tickets to the Super Bowl.” And the narrator says, “Oh, that's asking too much.”

From the Pastor cont. / Diaconate / Ruth Circle

The narrator at first replies, "Nope, no deal. If you don't get me tickets to the Big Game, then I'm not joining." But then, he says, "All right, we'll throw in tickets to the Super Bowl."

And the point of the video is that this church is completely built around them! It's Me Church! Well, one of the fundamental things that God does in us when He brings us from darkness to light is He teaches us "It's not all about me. It's about God. It's about His glory. And my enjoyment, my pleasure, my fulfillment, my growth, my satisfaction, my meaning in life is only found when I am decentralized, and when God is at the center of everything. When He is exalted, that is where I experience fullness of joy forevermore."

So you can't build a church full of people who are God-centered by saying to them "It's all about you." You can't move people from being me-centered to being God-centered by being me-centered. So the Apostle Paul is reminding us here in this passage that all of us who have come to faith in Christ have come to realize in some measure that it's all about God. It's all about His glory; and my enjoyment in this world, my fulfillment, and meaning and satisfaction is realized only when I realize it's all about God. And that begins to change everything in life."

RUTH CIRCLE

Ruth Circle will continue to meet during the summer season on the third Tuesday of each month in the church library /parlor, but our time and format will be a bit different, meeting at 11:00 a.m. for a devotional and then a time of prayer.

All ladies are invited even if you are not a regular attender of Ruth Circle during the rest of the year. We will especially be focusing on praying for our church and congregation as we embark on the building program. Nursery care will be available for children through 3 years of age, but please notify the nursery staff of your need ahead of time at 770-422-4974 ext. 1114.

Please join us on June 19th, July 17th and August 21st as we gather to pray for our families, our church and our nation.

“You’re not there yet!” was the title of Rev. Doty’s message for the youth Sunday services. Whether at the top of a hill in the middle of a race or graduating from high school it is not the time to stop and rest. It does seem like life is a series of goals that as soon as one is reached another needs to take its place or we just sit down and quit living. Much of what I enjoy about gardening and my walk with the Lord is I’ll never know it all. There will always be something new to learn in the area of horticulture. And scripture offers deeper levels of understanding to those who read and meditate on it. Looks like this summer we will learn which plants are drought tolerant. This year will also be the year to see how tolerant we church members are to changes due to construction.

The scripture Greg chose for his text was Colossians 2:6-8. These verses were among the ones we had to memorize when taking the Navigator 2:7 class. And truly both plants and Christians need to be deeply rooted to grow.

Bob and Patty Meredith have served in Africa since 1989 with The Navigators. For 14 years they worked in Zambia discipling university students. By October 2002 the Merediths had worked themselves out of their job and the transition to national leadership for the Zambian Navigator ministry was complete. They now live in Nairobi, Kenya where Bob is Africa Resources Director for the Navigator Africa Regional Team. The Merediths are briefly in the States for their daughter, Emily’s graduation and to visit supporters. They will be sharing at Midway Sunday evening June 17th. We are very excited to learn that two of their Zambian Navigator Staff friends will be joining them. Nelson Musipa and Mutinta Silenga will share their testimonies. They are indeed the fruit of this ministry that Midway has invested in over the years.

Also this month our Mexico Team will be heading to Zihuatanejo, Mexico to work along side Guillermo and Jennie Salinas. They have been asked to train the children’s church teachers. There is a real need for more Bible content in their lessons. In the mornings they will put their hands to painting the children’s classroom with a Bible scene, adding child size table and chairs, bringing other visual teaching tools and supplies. Please remember these ladies as they go June 10th: Liz Vawter, Rebecca Boggs, Sandy Burton, Katie Burton and Kim Burton.

Upcoming Missions dates for your prayer:

June 10 - 19 – Mexico Mission Trip
Sunday Evening June 17 – Bob and Patty Meredith, Africa
July 27 – August 4 – London Mission Trip
Sunday Evening July 29 – Ron Clegg, Hungary
October 5 – 7, 2007 – Missions Conference

Now that summer is here make time to sink your spiritual roots a little deeper into God’s word. Deep roots are needed to make it through the dry times.

Becky Blades, for the Missions Committee

Dr. Jonathan Sarfati

There is a rare opportunity available to us on Sunday evening, June 10th in the Midway Sanctuary. Renowned Creation author Dr. Jonathan Sarfati will be a guest in our pulpit and will present a compelling theological defense of the book of Genesis as he speaks on “Design, Deluge, & Dilemma”. In addition to authoring at least ten books, Dr. Sarfati is a research scientist and editorial consultant for Creation Ministries International (CMI). An outspoken defender of the faith, he is one of the co-editors and contributors to Creation magazine and the peer-reviewed Journal of Creation. His book Refuting Evolution is a devastating critique of the so-called best evidences for evolution, and is the largest-selling creation book ever written. His third book, Refuting Compromise, is already regarded by many as the most comprehensive scientific and theological defense of a straightforward, historical view of Genesis ever written.

This is an event that you simply must plan to attend. Even if your confidence in the authority of Scripture has never caused you to feel drawn into the debate over the origin of life (or its timing), the logical beauty of this man’s persuasive arguments will be a profound encouragement to you and to your friends. Yes, you should definitely invite your friends, especially if you have wondered about their faith in the authority of Scripture; many souls have been drawn to the Lord through the simple, yet powerful logic of this author and speaker.

Dr. Sarfati was born in Ararat, Australia in 1964. He moved to New Zealand as a child. He obtained a B.Sc. (Hons.) and then a Ph.D., both in Chemistry. He has co-authored papers in mainstream scientific journals, including a paper on high-temperature superconductors published in Nature when he was only 22 years old. A Christian since 1984, he has long been interested in apologetics, the defense of the faith, and was a co-founder of the Wellington Christian Apologetics Society (New Zealand). Creation vs evolution is of course a vital subject to him, because of the ramifications for the doctrines of Creation, the Fall which brought death into the world, and their links to the doctrines of the Incarnation, Atonement and Bodily Resurrection of the God-man Jesus Christ. In August 1996, he returned to Australia to take up his current position with CMI in Brisbane. In this capacity, he is co-editor of Creation magazine, and also writes and reviews articles for Journal of Creation, CMI’s in-depth peer-reviewed publication, as well as contributing to CMI’s CreationOnTheWeb website.

As many Christians have witnessed firsthand, proponents of “macro-evolution” (the claim that people evolved from non-living chemicals) will frequently argue against a sort of “straw-man” creationist position, railing against claims that we have never or would never make. They presume to control the debate but setting the terms and claiming their own “ground rules”. Dr. Sarfati’s presentation will both encourage and equip you to be prepared for when this specific opportunity arises once again. For example, did you know that creationist Edward Blyth thought of the concept of Natural Selection 25 years before Darwin’s Origin of Species was published? Bible-believing creationists know that Natural Selection is a providential, conservative process that removes defective organisms, thereby improving the health of the population as a whole. Only (naturalism-believing) evolutionists contend that Natural Selection has been creative, and science does not support the position.

A few hours of reading will leave you more prepared to gain the most from our guest speaker. Refuting Evolution is a powerfully concise little book, and at just 139 pages, can be finished in just a couple of evenings of reading. Used (for $1) and new copies of Refuting Evolution may be found at Amazon.com. Alternatively, several copies are available for loan from Mac Worley, “while supplies last”. Call Mac or send email to cmi_midway@bellsouth.net.

Nursery Ministry

Midway Nursery News:

As the year winds down and the summer months are upon us, I am trying to make sure the Nursery is covered and everyone is aware of our times that we are available by reservation.

Of course Nursery is open at all the regular sessions on Sunday (8:30, 9:45, 11 & 6) no reservations needed.

Nursery is also open with a very small staff for choir practice on Wednesdays 7 to 8:30 p.m. Midway Choir is requested to call the Nursery Office only if canceling the permanent reservations for their two families.

Therefore, if any Titus 2 groups would like to meet at Midway on Weds., Nursery will be open for them. We would need the Titus 2 Mother needing Nursery or the Titus 2 leader to call the Nursery Office if they will be using the Nursery and make reservations. Because if there are cancellations through the choir parents we will still be open for Titus 2 provided we know they are coming.

The Ruth Circle has requested Nursery the third Tuesday morning of each month (June 19th, July 17th, August 21st) maybe for an hour or so, for prayer time.

Anytime Nursery is needed during these quiet months, we need reservations and cancellations so that our staff are not sitting here twiddling their thumbs, not knowing if anyone is coming.
